

HARVARD Kennedy School

Kokkalis Program on Southeastern and East-Central Europe

WESTERN IMPACT AND TURKEY October 19, 2009-November 4, 2009

A seminar series by Dr. Baskin Oran, emeritus professor of international relations, Faculty of Political Science, Ankara University
Sponsored by the Kokkalis Program on Southeastern and East-Central Europe at the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard

All six lectures are free and open to the public. The lecture material will not be cumulative and attendance of all six lectures is optional. For more information, please visit <http://www.hks.harvard.edu/kokkalis> or contact the Kokkalis Program at ilyana_sawka@hks.harvard.edu/(617) 496-7115.

1. Theoretical and Conceptual Framework

Monday, October 19

4:30 p.m.

Room 020

CGIS South, Harvard University

1730 Cambridge St.

Cambridge, MA

- The three waves of Western expansion: 1490s, 1890s, 1990s
- From feudalism to globalization: the development process of Western societies
- Process of State and Nation building in the West and the reverse process in the periphery: 'Revolution from Above'
- Leading actor of the reverse process: The Enlightened/Intellectuals
- Dissection of the Enlightened

Co-sponsored with the Seminar on Turkey in the Modern World, Harvard Center for Middle Eastern Studies

2. The First Wave of Modernization (Kemalism)

Wednesday, October 21

4:30 p.m.

Room K262

CGIS, Harvard University

1730 Cambridge St.

Cambridge, MA

- A prototype of developing country nationalism
- Background to Kemalist reforms: western impact in the Ottoman Empire; the New Ottomans and the Young Turks
- The ideology of Kemalist nationalism (including sociopolitical, socioeconomic, and sociocultural factors)
- The Ottoman Empire and the Kemalist Revolution: a comparison
- Kemalist ideology in the 21st century: Ergenekon trial and beyond

Co-sponsored with the Seminar on Turkey in the Modern World, Harvard Center for Middle Eastern Studies, as part of the Baskin Oran seminar series "Western Impact and Turkey"

3. Minorities and Minority Rights

Monday, October 26

4:30 p.m.

Fainsod Room (L324)

Littauer Building, John F. Kennedy School of Government

79 John F. Kennedy St.

Cambridge, MA

- International protection of minorities and the Ottoman Empire
- Background to the minority concept and system: the Ottoman Empire's Millet System
- Minorities in Turkey by international and by national standards: non-Muslims and the Kurds in the Lausanne system
- Minority legislation and its implementation (until the EU Reform Packages)
- Analysis of the Turkish practice

4. The Second Wave of Modernization (EU Reform Packages 2001-2004)

Thursday, October 29

4:30 p.m.

Goldman Room

Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies

27 Kirkland St. at Cabot Way

Cambridge, MA

- Background to reform: EU candidacy approved at the Helsinki Summit, 1999
- Key categories of the reforms
- Implementation of the reforms: why problematic?
- Conclusions

Co-sponsored with the Southeastern Europe Study Group, Minda de Gunzburg Center for European Studies, as part of the seminar series "Western Impact and Turkey"

5. State and Religion in the Scope of Democracy and Human Rights

Tuesday, November 3

12:15 p.m.

Belfer Center Library (L369)

Littauer Building, John F. Kennedy School of Government

79 John F. Kennedy St.

Cambridge, MA

- The concept and cases of "competing rights"
- Religion in the Balkans and the Middle East: a human right, or a conflict generator for human rights?
- Particular religious claims in Turkey
- The use of religious symbols
- A potential solution for Turkey: distinction between providers and receivers of state services

Co-sponsored with the Initiative on Religion in International Affairs, Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs, as part of the Baskin Oran seminar series "Western Impact and Turkey"

6. Identities and Identity Conflicts

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4

4:30 p.m.

Neustadt Classroom (RG20)

Rubenstein Building, John F. Kennedy School of Government

79 John F. Kennedy St.

Cambridge, MA

- Types of identity
- Infra-identities and the State
- Is there a "Turkish Nation"? What is a "Turk"?
- Principal causes of confusion in political and judicial life